

Fostering continuous research and technology application

Prof. Lucio Poma
University of Ferrara
23rd of April 2013

Project partners

---

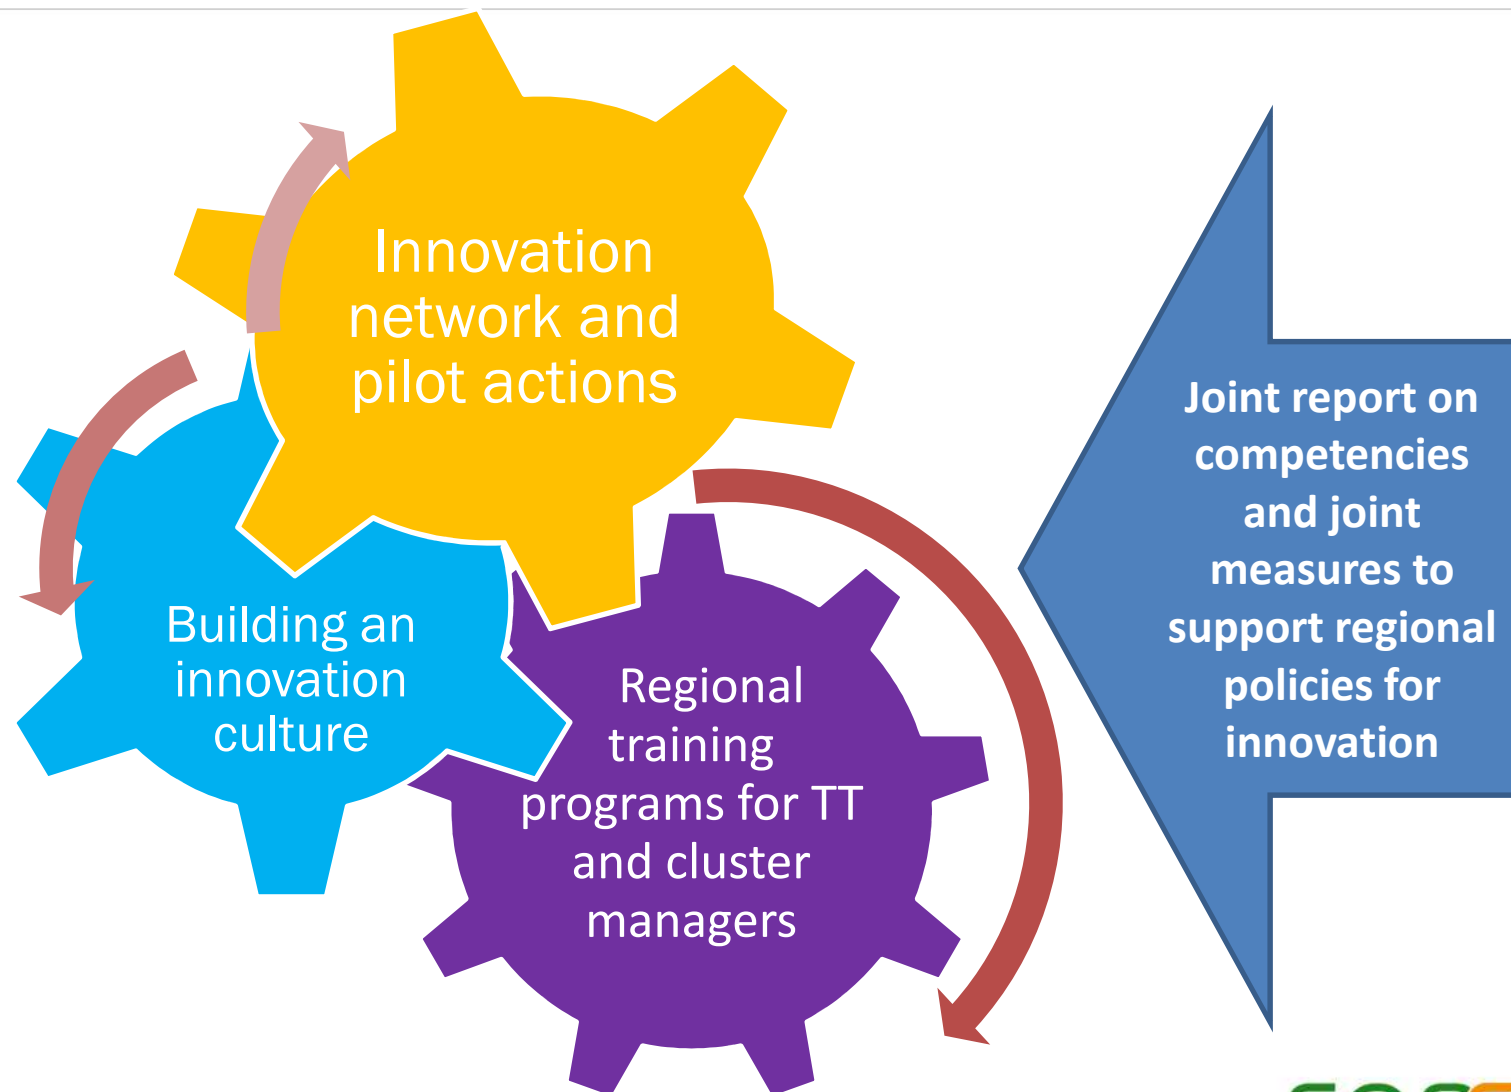

- TechnoCenter at University of Maribor (Slovenia) – Lead Partner
- Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Štajerska (Slovenia)
- MFG Baden-Wurttemberg mbH - Public Innovation Agency for ICT and Media (Germany)
- The Slovak Centre of Scientific and Technical Information (Slovakia)
- Amitie (Italy)
- Centuria RIT (Italy)
- Ferrara Research Consortium (Italy)
- University of Debrecen (Hungary)
- South Transdanubian Regional Innovation Agency (Hungary)

Project objectives

---

- To develop recommendations for building
- innovation culture in SMEs and public research organizations.
- To implement training programs for technology transfer and cluster managers.
- To establish a transnational network of innovation system actors.
- To create a transnational space for the realization of innovative ideas.
- To support technology transfer through pilot actions.
- To promote results to stakeholders
- DURATION: May 2011 – October 2013

Expected results

Implemented activities

---

- INNOVATION COACH: Laboratories and Innovation Centre of the Emilia-Romagna have shown the application potential of their research field to the companies and a visit to the CIRI laboratory has been presented (December 2011)
- OPEN HOUSE EVENT: 7 companies competed on the eco-building sector innovation application and evaluated by an international team within the ECOMONOD fair context. ABITCOOP obtained the INNOVATION VOUCHER, an opportunity of support from research institutions or private subjects. (November 2012)
- PILOT ACTIONS: rete connections between the research and the companies to support innovation application and job creation (started March 2013)

WWW.PROJECT-FORT.COM

FORT